

Power connection for trolley and CNG buses

We recommend a weather-proof power connection system routed above the folding bellows for trolley vehicles and CNG buses. The system can be shielded from view with attractive side panels for the respective folding bellows.

back to power connection systems