Liability notice

All of the cost-free information shown on this website is for your information only. We do not guarantee the provided information to be accurate, complete or up-to-date. Claims from disclosure, recommendation or advice can not be deduced from the provided information. All liability for damages is excluded unless intention or gross negligence are concerned.

We reserve the right to change, amend or delete these websites at any time.

All links to websites of third parties were thoroughly checked before installing and no illegal contents could be found at that time. However, we do not have control over the contents of websites of third parties and can not assume any responsibility for them. Therefore, we can neither guarantee that the linked websites provide legally unobjectionable contents, nor that the linked websites have not been subsequently altered in any illegal way.

All brand names mentioned on our websites have not been specifically marked in some cases. We have emphasize, however, that they are subject to trademark and license laws.

All of the provided texts, programs, graphics as well as audio and video files that have been compiled by us are subject to our usage and exploitation rights and may only be copied or distributed with our prior consent.

All entry of personal data of the user is voluntary and no requirement for the use of the provided online services.

According to § 33 BDSG, we have to inform you that certain user data will be saved and processed for further use.

Should any clause of this limited liability statement be no longer valid or conform to legal regulations, the validity of all other clauses remains unaffected.
